Medtrade West Call for Presentations – Deadline Extended

PHOENIX – The due date to submit a presentation for Medtrade West has been extended to 10/9/2020. Back in late February, Medtrade organizers announced that Medtrade Spring would get a new name and a new home. As a quick memory refresher—starting in 2021, the event will be re-introduced as Medtrade West and will convene in Phoenix, Ariz., April 12-14, 2021.

“It’s been a crazy year to say the least,” says Mark Lind, show director. “Our presenters need a bit of extra time and that’s totally understandable. The event is seven months away, and we believe the face-to-face trade shows have more value than ever. Will things be ‘back to normal’ by then? Probably not, but we believe we can convene a safe, productive, and successful show. That all starts with presenters who want to share their expertise.”

With an optimistic eye to the future, the Medtrade West 2021 Call For Presentations is still officially open. Are you willing to share your success and struggles? Are you an expert with knowledge to bestow? Are you a dynamic provider with something to share who enjoys being heard? If so, Medtrade West wants you.

Because attendees are enjoying the interactive and crowd-participating panels, it will remain a focus for 2021. Share your story and expertise on a panel, or lead a panel.

Again, the deadline for submissions is October 9, 2020.

Program Guidelines

Your program should address one of the educational tracks listed below. Sessions are either 1 hour or 1.5 hours in length with time for Q&A. The sessions will be formatted as free-flowing and interactive. Although there will be a combination of the standard “standing behind a lectern” classroom format, a good portion of next year’s sessions will be a town hall/panel format. Each town hall presentation will be presented by two or more “discussion leaders” and will allow the discussion leaders the option to facilitate an interactive presentation.

As a part of the educational advisory board’s (EAB) selection process, town hall/panel presentations with two or more discussion leaders will take precedence over single speaker sessions. In addition, sessions with providers participating will be given top consideration.

Please submit under one of the following tracks:

- Business Operations
- Executive Leadership & Planning
- Legal
- Medicare Updates*
- Retail
- Sales & Marketing

submit ONLY if you are CMS or Medicare Contractor*

If you have any questions, please e-mail Toni Ward, senior conference manager, at antoinette.ward@emeraldtx.com
